Oracle Applications Users Group Announces 2012 Participants in Star Partner Program

-Connecting technology vendors with Oracle Applications users-

ATLANTA – Jan. 12, 2012 - The Oracle Applications Users Group (OAUG), the world's largest user knowledgebase for Oracle Applications users, announced the associate member organizations participating in the 2012 OAUG Star Partner Program, which connects providers of related products and solutions with Oracle Applications users throughout the year.

OAUG Star Partners in 2012 include: EiS Technologies, IBM and Noetix as Five-Star partners; Excel4apps and Project Partners as Four-Star partners and Centroid, Chain-Sys, Core Services Corp., HP, Informatica, More4Apps, O2Works, Rimini Street, Inc. and Rolta as Three-Star partners. In addition, 20 other organizations are participating in the program at the Two-Star Elite, Two-Star and Rising-Star levels.

The OAUG Star Partner program is mutually beneficial for both technology vendors and the OAUG end users. Participating organizations in the program promote their products and services to help Oracle Applications users enhance their productivity, while OAUG members are educated about the latest trends and solutions from some of the industry's top suppliers and consultants.

The program provides a forum to enhance visibility, recognition and connections with the entire OAUG user base throughout the year through a variety of channels, including conference participation, sponsorships, educational webinars, interactive networking opportunities and publications such as OAUG Insight magazine and the OAUG Buyer's Guide.

"The OAUG Star Partner program offers a creative way for participating organizations to get their message across to the right audience at the right time through effective information exchange," said Steven R. Hughes, executive director of the OAUG.

Opportunities to participate in the 2012 OAUG Star Partner program are still available. For more information about the program, please contact Christine Hilgert, OAUG director of associate programs, at chilgert@oaug.com.
