News Release

OAUG Elects Jan Wagner as President

- Wagner continues to lead organization with focus on unity -

ATLANTA, Jan. 15, 2007 – The Oracle Applications Users Group (OAUG), the world’s largest user knowledgebase for Oracle Applications users, announces the election of Jan Wagner as president for 2007.

As a member of the OAUG’s board of directors for three years, Wagner has previously served as the co-chairman of the organization’s pricing council, the chairman of both the governance and finance committees and treasurer of the Executive Committee.

Apart from his duties as president, Wagner serves as the branch chief for operations and internal review for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) at the Allied Maritime Component Command Headquarters Northwood outside of London. In his position with NATO, he oversees the management of the headquarters’ Oracle E-Business Suite product as well as financial planning and corporate governance.

“The OAUG will continue to focus on reaching out and integrating new user groups into the growing Oracle community,” said Wagner. “Our organization will also expand its global role in providing education and networking opportunities to all Oracle-related applications users, and continue its very positive working relationship with Oracle.”

Other newly elected members of the board of directors include the following: Basheer Khan of Innowave Technologies, executive vice president; Ray Payne, the Johns Hopkins University Applied Physics Laboratory, vice president of global outreach and transition; Marcia Michalik of Starkey Labs, treasurer; and Becky Tipton of Blood Systems, secretary. Patricia Dues, enterprise program manager for the City of Las Vegas, remains on the executive committee as the organization’s past president.
